Dear [redacted]

25X1

On the occasion of your retirement, it gives me pleasure to commend you for your invaluable service to the Intelligence Community, particularly for your nine years' membership on the DCI Security Committee. Your advocacy of improved and practicable security measures was most helpful in enhancing the protection of intelligence sources, methods and information. Your constructive advice on many security issues over the years, especially with regard to the unauthorized disclosure problem, significantly benefited the Intelligence Community through enhancing understanding of shared problems and encouraging development of common solutions to them. My special thanks go to you for your service as the first chairman of the SECOM working group on unauthorized disclosures. The procedures you established in that capacity formed the basis for continuing Community efforts to identify disclosures, evaluate their impact, arrange for their investigation, and develop remedial security measures to reduce the likelihood of recurrence.

You can take justified pride in your 41 years of government service, first as a military officer and, for the last nine years, as the senior civilian in DIA security. I wish you well in whatever endeavors you undertake in the future, and I commend you for your distinguished services to your country and the Intelligence Community.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
